ON THE ROAD To The Title

Round 20 preview

Central Coast v Fairfield Bulls

The Coasties are hopeful of having a trio of important players' back to boost their squad after injury - Captain Peter Preston, Clint Smith and Marcus Steele. After Eastern Suburbs' win on the long weekend the Coasties moved back to the bottom of the table, and won't be relishing a clash with a Fairfield side coming off a great win.

The Bulls collected all three points for the second time this season against the Macarthur Rams, and will be looking for another three points here. With the way the table is looking a win at Pluim Park for the Bulls, plus maybe picking up a point or two in their last two games should see them make the top five in their first season in Super League. Matthew Borg started from the bench against the Rams because of an ankle injury, but came on and played well. He was limping afterwards though and it will be interesting to see if he is risked.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Fairfield Bulls

Blacktown City Demons v Bankstown City Lions

Both teams had last weekend off, a rare treat in what both sets off fans are hoping will be a season extended into the final series. While that is a certainty for the Demons, Bankstown fans will believe their team will need to win probably two out of three, and it doesn't get much tougher than against Blacktown at the Gabbie Stadium.

Blacktown boss Brian Brown said after his side's Round 19 win over Bonnyrigg that he was looking forward to the week off, to give some of his players a rest and the chance to get over niggling injuries. A good indication of the strength of any team is the state of their substitutes - Blacktown had Stuart Cleary, Chris Bradley and Damien Smith on their bench against Bonnyrigg...

Bankstown is probably the sort of team who could well go to Blacktown and get a win. Their inconsistent nature means tipping their games is nigh on impossible, but they remain in the hunt for a top five spot.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Blacktown City Demons

Leichhardt Tigers v Bonnyrigg White Eagles

Leichhardt are one of a number of clubs eyeing that top five spot, and like the others know that three good results will see them there, three bad ones could see them miss out. The Tigers face a tough run in though as they play Bonnyrigg and Fairfield, and playing at home will need to pick up at least a point here.

Bonnyrigg are looking for Blacktown to slip up now, but as they can't do anything about that they just need to get back on the winning trail and go into the final series in good form. Its going to be difficult for them here at Lambert Park and they could just find themselves the victims of an upset.
SUPER SOCCER TIP - Leichhardt

Sutherland Sharks v Parramatta Eagles

The Sharks are watching Eastern Suburbs and the Central Coast fight it out between them, but really need to pick up at least one more win to make sure they don't finish bottom. It won't be easy here though, and it could be again a case of although Sutherland lose, the other two teams below them may very well do the same.

Parramatta are in the top five, and will fancy their chances here of consolidating that position. The closeness from four to eight means this is one game the Eagles can't afford to slip-up in, and ex-Sutherland striker Grant Bard could go at least level at the top of the Super League leading goalscorers chart if he nets one here.
SUPER SOCCER TIP - Parramatta Eagles.

Macarthur Rams v Eastern Suburbs

Rams first grade coach Casey De Bruin resigns - see page 16.

The Rams need a win here or face the prospect of maybe missing out. On paper there should be no worries for Martin Bourke's men, but they will be missing the suspended Dion Valle and Richard Lloyd, after both were sent off against the Bulls. This leaves a selection headache for the Rams, who will have to come up with two new defenders to play alongside youngster Matthew O'Shea, and they know Eastern Suburbs will be up after last week's win over Ryde.

Unlike the Rams, Eastern Suburbs have no coaching worries, last week re-appointing John Calleja as first grade coach for next season. Their win against Ryde means the Wanderers have their fate in their own hands now, although we expect both them and the Coasties to lose in Round 20.
SUPER SOCCER TIP - Macarthur Rams

Ryde City v Canterbury Marrickville

Ryde City lost last week to Eastern Suburbs, and as mentioned in last week's preview are probably the only team for whom the season really is over. Coach Les Decelis will have more than one eye on next season though, so his players won't be taking their last three games too easy.

This is the sort of game Canterbury Marrickville must win if they are to have a chance of finishing in the top five. Depending on results elsewhere the Berries will need probably two wins out of three, and realistically one of those must be here.
SUPER SOCCER TIP - Draw

Although no games were originally scheduled for Super League on the weekend, three re-arranged games were played, all of which had a bearing on the top and bottom of the Super League ladder.

Macarthur Rams 2 Fairfield Bulls 3

The Fairfield Bulls traveled to Lynwood Park on a cold holiday Monday afternoon, and repeated the 3-2 score-line they inflicted on the Rams at the Nineveh Field.

Despite having to play Matthew Borg off the bench, the Bulls caused the usually solid Rams defence problems all game, although it was a much tighter game in midfield, especially after the Bulls lost Jason Falzon to a pulled hamstring early on.

The Bulls started in sensational fashion, finding the net after just two minutes. It was a strange start, with the Rams giving the ball away and then not picking up Darren Iocca, deputising up-front for Borg. Although he was between two defenders when the ball came to him, he hooked the ball over a back-pedalling John Crawley from some way out, and the ball looped over the goalkeeper and into the net. It was some skill at any stage of the game, but as it must have been Iocca's second or third touch it made it even more special.

The Bulls looked good early on, as a gusting wind swept over the ground, going right through anyone exposed to the elements, and after nine minutes Mark Hoenselaars, who had a fine game in attack for the Bulls, was denied by Crawley, who blocked his shot well.

On 35 minutes came an equaliser for the Rams which was just about deserved, although it was their first real move of quality. The ball was played out of defence, passed through midfield before a cross was whipped in with pace from the right hand side. Michael Brookes' header was just as good as the cross, as he got his first for the Rams, thumping the ball home.

Four minutes later Hoenselaars again caused trouble on the left hand side of the pitch, smacking a shot goalwards with incredible power, but the ball cannoned off the top of the cross-bar. A minute later though he adjusted his sights just slightly, and after getting the ball after some more sloppy play in defence he smacked a shot that this time hit the underside of the bar.

Although the ball bounced back into play both the referee and his assistant were in doubt that the ball had crossed the line, and the Bulls went into the break with their one goal advantage restored.

Macarthur started the second half well, a Kain Rastall shot hitting the post, and the Rams enjoyed their best spell of the match.

Seven minutes in Hoenselaars again was denied, courtesy of a fine tackle, and the ball was smothered by Crawley. Seven minutes after that Richard Lloyd, one of Martin Bourke's helpers as coach, had a free kick well covered by Dragon Pupovac in Fairfield's goal, and it looked like a goal was going to come for the Rams.

A goal did come, but to the delight of Fairfield, it was for them. Borg had replaced Hoenselaars, and when he had a sighter at the near post he fired straight through Crawley. At 3-1 with 21 minutes to go there never looked to be a way back for Macarthur. Bourke scored a smart goal with five minutes to go after a good lay-off from Shane Knight, but Borg went on a great run down the right that should have been converted by Iocca.

With a minute to go Rams defender Dion Valle was dismissed for a professional foul, although it was a 50/50 decision as to whether his man was in a goal-scoring position. To make matters worse, as he was leaving the field Richard Lloyd obviously did not agree with the decision, but made his feelings known in a manner which led to him also being dismissed.

The game therefore ended badly for the Rams, who will miss both players next week, but the Bulls look to have given themselves a very good chance of making that top five position.

Caretaker Coach for the Rams Martin Bourke was disappointed with the goals his team had conceded, describing them as 'soft', and warned his players that unless they picked up some results they were in danger of missing out on a top five position.

He admitted he faced a tough task selecting replacements for Valle and Lloyd, but did mention that youngster Matthew O'Shea at the back had performed well. As to his own position he said that while he was more interested in playing than coaching, the players had thought it better he take on the role rather than have to bring a new face in at this late stage of the season.

Bulls Coach Joe Watson was naturally delighted with his team's performance, especially that of his three strikers. Falzon's replacement Martin Driene had done well as he was full of the 'flu, and the win kept up the Bulls impressive record against teams at the top of the table. Watson believed the win meant a win at the Central Coast and the Bulls would be there or there abouts, and overall the three points plus the achievement of the double over Macarthur meant Watson was a very happy man.

Macarthur Rams: Crawley, Valle, Lloyd, Bourke, Macerola (Whiddett), Williams, Reid, Rastall, Knight, Brookes, O'Shea

Fairfield Bulls: Pupovac, Mandic, Zabetakis, Falzon (Driene), Hoenselaars (Borg), Bourke, Giometti, Treharn, Vrankovic, Iocca, Mancic

Yellow cards: Macarthur: Bourke, Brookes, O'Shea Fairfield: Hoenselaars, Vrankovic, Driene

Red cards: Macarthur: Valle, Lloyd

Best for Macarthur: Rastall

Best for Fairfield: Hoenselaars

Canterbury will need to win at Ryde to be in with a chance.

Central Coast 0 Parramatta Eagles 2

It was a good day for the Parramatta Eagles who went back into fourth on Sunday night following their 2-0 win at the Central Coast.

It was exactly the opposite for the Coasties though, as not only did they lose but wooden spoon rivals Eastern Suburbs notched up a rare win, meaning the Coasties went back to the bottom of the table.

The Coasties, due to injuries, were only able to start the game with nine regular first grade players, which included the absence of captain Peter Preston. Even so, they were able to keep the Eagles to a reasonable score, and for a period in the first half could have snatched something themselves.

On a cold afternoon Parramatta opened the scoring after just seven minutes through Adam Anderson, who netted his ninth of what for him has been a very short campaign.

The goal came after a goalmouth scramble, and the Coasties then enjoyed their best period of the play with some good attacks.

Following a free kick Ryan McKendrick saw his header cleared away for a corner, and from that corner Wes Bennett shot into the side netting. Four minutes later a Stuart Sontag free kick was headed home by McKendrick, but the 'goal' was disallowed for a push on goal-keeper Jason Holmes, ever present in the Eagles goal this season.

Justin Norman then shot wide after the ball had bounced kindly for him, but at the other end Grant Bard forced the ever-youthful Gary Meier into a fine save. The ball then went straight to the other end but Sontag's low drive grazed the outside of the post with Holmes beaten.

Just before the break Parramatta should have made it 2-0 but Anthony Panzarino fired over the bar when well placed with just Meier to beat.

After the re-start though the Eagles got their second when Paul O'Grady forced the ball home from a corner. The Coasties came back and a Nathan Byrn over-head kick skimmed the crossbar, before Sontag headed a cross just over.

Holmes then saved superbly a Brent Demery free kick, before Meier was called into action twice, firstly from Islas and then from Meilak.

The Coasties were gallant in defeat but the extra class of Parramatta and the loss of key players meant they were always going to be struggling.

Central Coast: Meier, Demery, Drysdale, Bennett, Byrn, Norman, Maltby, Sontag (Marshall) McKendrick (Kane) Alexander (Binskin) Bourke

Parramatta Eagles: Holmes, Utjesenovic (Kelso), O'Grady, Revely, Panzarino, M Meilak, Bard, Mittiga, Islas, Anderson, Conde

Parramatta's ADAM ANDERSON - 9 Goals for the season

Eastern Suburbs 1
Ryde City Gunners 0

In a game the Wanderers had to win, this catch up game was played at a fast pace from the opening whistle. The Gunners played as if there was a finals berth up for grabs, and Eastern Suburbs were playing as you would expect from a team fighting off finishing bottom.

The only goal came in the 62nd minute to the Wanderers courtesy of a through ball from an in-form Mark Beldham. The ball was pounced upon by Peter Pullicino, who put the ball over the head of an advancing Les Bihari.

With ex-Wanderers Craig Sharpley, Dave Segreto and Les Bihari playing for the Gunners the game was always going to be physical, and the game was full of stoppages.

Tim Wilson and Craig Sharpley had opportunities for Ryde and George Maglis had another strong game for the home side, until being taken off injured following a clash with Bihari.

Near the end Patrick Darvill and Mark Beldham both missed chances to seal the win for Eastern Suburbs, both making good runs but being unable to finish off their good work.

But it was Pullicino's sixth goal of the season that secured the three points, and he probably won't score a more vital one all season.

Stadium Australia on Saturday night.

Harry Kewell, the player on whom so many Australian hopes rest, was superb until being injured and stretchered off in the 56th minute, but his replacement, Brett Emerton, came on and scored within 60 seconds!

It was fairy tale stuff for Emerton, who chested the ball down and finished with his right foot, to what was probably the biggest cheer of the night.

That was an achievement in itself, as the goal which brought Australia level was one of the best the Stadium will ever see. Ned Zelic turned in midfield, and while in this match the challenges weren't exactly flying in, Rigobert

Song apart, his run and long range shot was an absolute screamer. Goalkeeper Jorge Campos had little chance, especially as he had only been on the field for a few minutes in the second half, although with the way Bernard Lama performed in the first half, one suspects that not only would Lama have got a hand to it - he would have probably caught it as well!

In a match where players were given time to turn, chances fell frequently to both teams, but in the first period anything the Socceroos threw at Lama he dealt with in style, while at the other end a nineth minute goal Murat Yakin seperated the two sides.

The second half saw a turn-around after Zelic scored his goal just a minute in, although the All-Stars team had just made five substitutions at the break. Emerton's goal gave the Socceroos the lead, then Javier Margas, the Chilean defender with red hair from France '98, turned the ball into his own net after good work down the right by Kevin Muscat.

Hayden Foxe, brother of Blacktown's Damien, came on for what was many Australian fans first look at him, and the Hiroshima Sanfrecce defender looked composed in the twenty minutes or so he was on the park.

There was just time left for Wynton Rufer to remind everyone of his ability, as he smashed a goal past Zeljko Kalac at the near post, but the night belonged to the people of Sydney, and in particular two young men from New South Wales!

It was great to see the Coerver kids giving a demonstration of their skills on Saturday night at Stadium Australia. Their half-time performance was a real-highlight of the night, as they showed off the sort of skills they are taught at Coerver.

If you are interested in Coerver Coaching see the ad below.

As mentioned in On the Road to the Title, Macarthur Rams boss Casey de Bruin became the second Super League first grade coach to resign this season, following on from Bankstown's Sakib Lovic. de Bruin resigned on a matter of principle following a disagreement with the Macarthur board over the signing of a player, and with neither side able to resolve their differences, de Bruin resigned. The Macarthur first grade side has come along way under his coaching, and it will be interesting to see the effect it has on the players in the close-season.

Martin Bourke, the Rams midfielder, has been appointed caretaker coach until the end of the season, and he will be assisted by senior players John Crawley and Richard Lloyd.

Congratulations to Simon Catanzaro, who picked up the 'National Youth League Player of the Year' award in the Ericsson Cup 1999 awards night. The New South Wales Institute of Sport striker attributed much of his success to the program, and Catanzaro was a deserved winner of the award. Super Soccer will be doing a follow up story to its one on the New South Wales Institute of Sport team in the next few weeks.

Back to the Rams, and they were supposed to have played the Olyroos in a friendly on Tuesday night at Lynwood Park. Unfortunately for the Rams though, the Olyroos were offered a short trip to Singapore instead, so the game was cancelled at short notice.

Eastern Suburbs' Steve McCombe has left the club for the second time this season, while Stevie Lawrence has joined Fraser Park for the rest of the season, as inferred last week in Super Soccer. Goalkeeper Adam Mark, who only got back into the side recently after his injury in the first game of the season, has gone with the Uniroos to the University World Games, so it is expected Con Anastasiadis will once again return in goal.

The Soccer Expo was a huge success, with an estimated 60,000 people going through on the three days.

The New South Wales Soccer Federation's site proved one of the more popular, and Super Soccer will be announcing the competition winners from the competitions that were run at the site in next week's issue.

It was great to see the kids, and indeed a number of adults, lining up for autographs on the Sunday from Mark Bosnich, Harry Kewell and Mark Viduka, and the three players will be nursing sore hands after signing literally thousands of autograph requests!

ROUND FIFTEEN SUMMARY

AC UNITED GAIN DOUBLE SUCCESS MOOREBANK BEAT SAINTS AND DOLPHINS EXTEND LEAD

Stanmore won an important battle at Arlington Oval at the start of the weekend, defeating in-form Rockdale 2-1, with an Eddie Briscoe penalty sealing the win in the 77th minute after Malcolm Adams had been brought down inside the box by Andrew Stubbs.

The first half was fairly quiet, with Rockdale losing striker Spase Najdoski just before the break due to injury.

Stanmore made most of the early running, with Rockdale looking the more dangerous on the break.

Socrates Bakafoukas dragged his 13th minute shot wide after shrugging aside two defenders and drawing the keeper. He has similar bad luck stories to tell later in the game, but it was this player who gave the Hawks the lead in the 45th minute, a timely goal indeed.

A deep cross from Adrian Lara from wide on the right was met by the big striker who had made a very well timed run into the box and headed past Mark Afif at the near post.

Rockdale, not to be outdone scored their own timely goal in the first few seconds of the second half to draw level.

Goal-a-game-Goce, Trposki, arrived at the near post to send a glancing header past Paul Kyprianou after a ball had been played in from the right by John Manalopoulos.

Manalopoulos was denied by the keeper who blocked his strong shot after a pass from Alex Yepes in the 47th, but at the other end Eddie Wong screwed his shot wide after Afif had come well off his line.

After some close misses by Bakafoukas, Trposki was twice off target for Rockdale and then came the fatal penalty that sealed the game. Adams had raced into the box but appeared content to hold the ball up until a tackle sent him sprawling and that was the ball game.

St George suffered the worst possible result on Saturday against Moorebank in their attempt to gain ground on leaders Manly-Warringah who they had beaten ten days earlier.

They had to face a team anchored at the bottom of the ladder who had brought in some new players recently in an attempt to climb clear of the relegation zone.

Moorebank managed to score the only goal of the game to snatch all three points and achieve their objective, but it all went horribly wrong for St George.

An attempted back pass was under-hit by a Saints defender and Moorebank newcomer Spiro Rompies seized his opportunity to go on and place the ball into an empty net just two minutes into the second half.

A C United on the other hand were delighted with their weekend's work, grabbing maximum points from two consecutive days of activity against two of the better performed clubs in the division.

On the Saturday they came up against the usually impressive Hurstville City

Minotaurs.

A ball not cleared by the A C defence in the 8th minute and eventually fell to Spiro Kladis whose thunderous shot came off the post and into the net for the lead by Hurstville.

A C were well on top after this early setback but could not put away their chance, Devrin Huseyin having a huge impact on the midfield with his running and general work-rate.

The equaliser came when Shayne Borg made a run on the right and tucked the ball inside to Huseyin who, in turn, found Cristian Ortiz out wide on the left. Ortiz drove the ball across from the byline and Chad Gibson arrived at the far post to steer the ball past the keeper.

Two minutes later Devrin Huseyin won the ball once more and this time took the ball through himself to score the winner with a powerful shot into the top corner of the net.

A C comfortably held out any further threat from the visiting Minotaurs

It had been a while since the team had won, but they appear to have found their right combination now

They won again the next day, also at Abruzzi Oval, when they tamed Bathurst who had scored twice inside the first four minutes through Mark Rooke, one goal with the aid of a goalkeeper's error.

Fabio Screpis scored twice inside four minutes around the half hour mark and the scores were level once more.

An own goal by Bathurst gave A C the lead before the break and then Gibson managed two second-half goals to help his side run out 5-2 winners at the finish.

On Sunday at Cromer Park a very much depleted Hurstville City came up against a Manly-Warringah side in determined mood after some recent losses.

Coach Tony Pezzano rested a few players and gave opportunities to players such as Mark Moult at sweeper and Chris Stubbs-Mills, also changing keepers with Dean McCreath taking over from Roco Papalia. Alan Hunter moved into the stopper's spot and the changes had the desired result.

Other than chronicle the steady stream of goals there was little to report, as Manly were so dominant it was almost like a training match for them on a pleasant afternoon for everyone except the hapless Minotaurs who had many players unavailable for various reasons.

Damian Rosenthal won the ball 30 yards out in the 10th minute and laid on a through pass for Dean Harding to go and beat Stacey Alogdelis.

Hunter's header from a corner on the right was parried by the keeper and Danny Barbalace put away the rebound from 12 yards in the 19th and after a good passage of play involving Danny Townsend and Harding, Rosenthal was able to drive the ball past Alogdelis who could only help the ball into the net in the 23rd.

A cross from Stubbs-Mills in the 29th gave Harding a free header wide on the left of the area that looped over the defence and into the top right corner of the net for the fourth of the afternoon.

Townsend made a great run down the left in the 38th and laid the ball on a plate for Harding to bring up his hat trick with a very cool finish.

Four minutes after the restart Rosenthal foud himself right in front with only the keeper to beat and kept his head to make it 6-0, but with Rosenthal and Harding both taken off towards the end the goals dried up and Hurstville managed a couple of chances from Spiro Kladis whose respective shots were blocked on the line and then driven just wide, moments later.

A lovely volley from Peter Papouthis also rocked the bar in the 55th, but this was not the Minotaurs' day. An easy win for the Dolphins, instead, that put them back into a handy lead once more.

First Division improvers Moorebank came from two down to snatch a 2-2 draw at Arlington Oval, against second placed Stanmore, early strikes from Eddie Briscoe and Mal Adams being nullified by Marcus Pavlakis and Matt Hughes, while at Penrith the locals went down 1-3 to Auburn, Bob Casserly's 13th minute penalty giving them early hope that did not carry them very far.

Stanmore were ahead from an Eddie Briscoe free kick on the half-hour and added a second seven minutes later through Scotsman Malcolm Adams.

Moorebank got what they needed, a goal before the break, when an indiscretion by Hawks' keeper Paul Kyprianou presented the visitors with a free kick right in front and former Stanmore player Pavlakis put the kick straight into the net.

The winner arrived from Matt Hughes in the 73rd and it was a ding dong contest after that with the one time bottom club good value for their point which dented Stanmore's title hopes a little.

Moorebank have been strengthened in recent weeks by the addition of Spiro Rompires, Phil Worth, Joseph Corrente and Peter Alexopoulos. They came after keeper Les Pogliacomi and striker Geoff Gunning some weeks ago and the results are beginning to arrive now.

A rampant Auburn enjoyed their best showing in some time by completely outplaying Penrith at Nepean Rugby Park. While Casserly did put away his spot kick nicely, it did not take long for Navid Varess to level in the 18th and when one of the most potent strikers in the division, Huseyin Bayhan, was on target in the 42nd it set the scene for a grandstand finish.

It was tense thereafter but Auburn nailed the coffin down in the 82nd when Tanir Omac scored to give his side an unassailable 3-1 lead.

In the only other game played, Illawarra Lions defeated Dulwich Hill 2-0, Rodriguez in the 5th and Alex Kencevski in the 60ty being the scorers for the home side who consigned Dulwich to the bottom spot with this win.

ROUND SIXTEEN PREVIEW

There are two important games this Saturday, with Bathurst attempting to put St George almost certainly out of the title race should they win their home game against them, just as they did against leaders Manly a fortnight ago.

Saints are still reeling from the losses to Rockdale and Moorebank in their two most recent matches.

There are a few injury concerns in the St George camp and it will need a determined effort for them to squeeze out a result on the narrow, hard, bumpy surface that the Alec Lamberton ground is reported as providing, according to visiting Sydney sides returning from there this season.

St George must win this and after a scoreless draw between the two sides in the city it could be much the same in the west. A slender away win is forecast all the same, but not with any great confidence.

Dulwich Hill plays Manly at Arlington Recreation Ground and could do all the chasing clubs a favour by providing an upset of Moorebank proportions.

They certainly have the players, but so far it has not come together for them. The surface will not suit Manly and an upset is a slight possibility here.

Moorebank tackles Stanmore for the second time in 6 days on Sunday at Hammondville Park, ready to try and put a space between themselves and Dulwich Hill. Should Dulwich win the previous day they will double their efforts and this contest could have a lot of spark in it. A draw is predicted mirroring Monday's outcome, but Stanmore have been fragile away until recently. This will be a good test for them.

Rockdale take on Auburn at their Soccer Centre, hoping to get back to winning form after a lapse at Stanmore saw an unbeaten seven game stretch come to an end. They should win this one, but Auburn are the most unpredictable side in the league and who can guess how they will go here?

Hurstville City are going to need to lift considerably to beat A C United at Hurstville Oval, the visitors being in very good form now. The two teams met last weekend and Hurstville will pay them plenty of respect. Impossible to predict with the Minotaurs how they will go, but at home they are a tough team to beat and much will depend on who is available to play. A fit Tom Pontidas would help a lot.

Maybe a draw is the most likely result in this one.

Illawarra Lions are going to know they have been in a game when they encounter Penrith Panthers at Ian McLennan Park, but their own showings lately do inspire a degree of confidence and they must start favourites, given lapses by Penrith lately.

ROUND FOURTEEN SUMMARY

HAJDUK AND FRASER PARK BOTH WIN UNIVERSITY DERBY TOPS THE BILL ON MONDAY

Title favourites and currently second-placed Hajduk Wanderers began the Saturday game against neighbours Greystanes like a house on fire, but struggled to convert their numerous early chances and had to wait until the 28th minute to open the scoring at Hajduk Stadium.

Peter Pecotic, not long promoted from the Under 21s, made a beautiful run on the right flank and despite David Apps coming out to narrow the angle the Hajduk player was able to find the top left corner of the net.

Seven minutes later and one of the competition's leading scorers, Damien Brown, put his home side two up with a goal in almost identical fashion.

Five minutes before the break and the Wanderers were well on top, with a shot by J J Ellul pushed away by Apps only for Paul Croci to put away the rebound.

Greystanes had a much better second half and got their reward with a goal from Andrew Cauchi whose shot sailed over Darren Cross.

Hajduk are looking very strong and are exploring ways to strengthen the side further in the remaining weeks as the tussle with Fraser Park remains a tight one. Some Sydney United players may be heading their way.

Fraser Park beat Mount Pritchard 3-1 on Sunday, maintaining their trend of hitting teams early by scoring twice inside the first 25 minutes. Top scorer Matthew Zec opened their account with a goal in the 15th minute and newcomer Sasha Talevski added a second in the 24th.

A move begun by Ian Stoddart and involving Franco Cosentino saw John Cosentino - his cousin - pull back a goal for Mount Pritchard in the 38th, but Fraser sealed the issue in the 74th with their latest signing Jeff Suzor netting.

Hurstville ZSC bounced back after their narrow loss to Hajduk by defeating Hills United 6-0 at Hurstville Oval. Alan Pavelic put the locals a goal up in the 3rd minute and it took another 41 minutes for defender Peter Vrlic to add a second, but there really was no doubting the outcome three minutes into the second half when Gary Deprato scored the third.

It was a cakewalk from that point, further goals from skipper Bob Barisic, Steve Zoric and popular Robert Harmat in the last half hour.

The big Second Division derby between Sydney University and Uni of NSW went the way of the city slickers 5-2, with ace marksman Rob Smithies snaring four, Luke McDougall getting the other with a tap in.

The Wales had taken an early lead and held on 1-1 at half time, but had no answer to one of the most potent strikers going around today who now has 14 goals to his credit this term.

Sydney Uni alumnus Charlie Perkins was among the 200 spectators at the game which was a fine exhibition of football, with little need for intervention from the referee.

Smithies was given chances early, with David Gill the main provider, Gill himself almost catching the keeper out with an audacious lob.

A low shot from wide on the left by Alex Papamanuel, steered through a crowded goalmouth, took a touch from Sydney defender Richie McIntyre and diverted into the net for a 15th minute lead by the visitors who had shown some spark in the opening exchanges.

A brilliant save from Matt Craw prevented the boys from the Wales going two up in the 33rd minute, Dax Bykerk's looping header looking set to sail into the top left corner of the net.

Smithies had steered a shot wide of the post after a perfect nod-on from striking partner McDougall a minute earlier, but found his touch in the 34th to level the scores.

There were several more potential scoring moments before the break, with Gordon Pitt volleying just over and Gill shooting straight at the keeper, while at the other end Bykerk hit a 30 yard drive that skimmed just past the upright.

When the Wales keeper tried to chest down a back pass in the 47th he was closed down quickly by McDougall who proceeded to hit the post, but the ball ran free and after beating a defender Smithies put the loose ball into an unguarded net for a Sydney 2-1 lead.

In the 59th Wales won a corner on the right and when Nick Kodomichalos floated the ball over there was Moreno on hand to head past Craw, after an attempted clearance from Pitt had struck his own crossbar and rebounded to the visiting captain.

Smithies was denied by a good save from replacement keeper Nick Apoifis in the 62nd but five minutes later McDougall had made it 4-2 from point blank range after Chris Bowman had sent Gill through to provide the final pass.

When Sydney substitute Dan Felton had attempted to lob the keeper on a counter attacking move in the last moments of the game the ball was blocked but fell to Smithies who lobbed the ball himself into an empty net from fully 35 yards to complete the rout.

Zlatko Nastevski reminded us of his silky skills with yet another brilliant free kick from 35 yards out to help his Arncliffe side upset Mount Druitt 3-0 at Popondetta Park. His turn and typically brilliant shot from inside the box made it two by half time and he also set up Rob Todorovski for the third to cap a fine performance by the southern Sydney side on a very cool night in the north west.

Belmore Hercules hung on to win the relegation battle at a windswept Blick Oval 3-2 over Sydney District who have collected only four points after 14 rounds, 2 fewer than Uni of NSW who seem to be on the improve, despite the loss today.

M Hanna had given District the lead in the 2nd minute, but an equaliser was not long arriving, George Solidakis netting after only 8 minutes.

George Ganiatsas put Hercules ahead six minutes later, but his team's rivals came back against through Javier Gelos in the 53rd.

A 66th minute shot from David Fernandes proved to be the winner for Belmore who were under immense pressure towards the end.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

It was a double weekend in the Super Youth League plus Divisions One and Two Youth League, so find out below how YOUR team fared on Saturday and Monday!

Round 18 review

G13's

Saturday's games brought few changes to the league table, and after 18 rounds it looks like there's no stopping the Blacktown City Demons. A 5-0 win over Southern Branch at the Gabbie means they are now a huge 15 points clear of second-placed Wollongong, who were hammered 6-3 by Sydney Olympic.

That win means Sydney Olympic stay in third but move closer to the Wolves, while in fourth Newcastle defeated the Sutherland Sharks 1-0 and also have a couple of games in hand.

Next it's the Gladesville Hornsby Association, who were held to a 3-3 draw at the Parramatta Eagles, who are in sixth. Leichhardt in seventh had a 5-0 win over Sydney United, and Marconi Fairfield in eighth had a 2-1 win over the Southern Districts, while at the bottom the Central Coast and Manly Warringah Dolphins shared the points in a 1-1 draw.

Macarthur Rams picked up a good 2-1 win over Eastern Suburbs, setting the scene up nicely for Monday and Round 19 action.

G14's

It's still tight at the top of the G14 table, and once again the lead changed hands. The new leaders after Round 18 are Sydney Olympic, who had a huge 8-2 win over the Wollongong Wolves.

Sydney United is second after a 4-0 win at Leichhardt, and third are the Gladesville Hornsby Association who won 4-1 against the Parramatta Eagles.

The Southern Districts were top going into the round, but despite drawing 3-3 against Marconi Fairfield they slipped down to fourth.

Blacktown are next after their 5-0 win over the Southern Branch, with Wollongong staying in sixth despite their loss to the new leaders.

Macarthur moved level on points with Leichhardt after defeating Eastern Suburbs 4-0, while the Sutherland Sharks sit in seventh after a good 1-0 away win at the Newcastle Breakers.

The Central Coast Coasties and Manly Warringah Dolphins started the day level with just six points each, but it was the Coasties who added three to that with a 1-0 win at Pluim Park.

G15's

Unlike the G14's there were few changes to the league table after Saturday's games, with leaders Blacktown City Demons enjoying a 3-0 win over the Southern Branch. The Gladesville Hornsby Association remains second after a 3-1 win against the Parramatta Eagles, and Marconi Fairfield is in third despite a 2-1 defeat at fourth-placed Southern Districts.

The Sutherland Sharks in fifth were another team to lose, going down 3-0 at Newcastle, as were sixth placed Wollongong, who were beaten 2-0 by Sydney Olympic. Sydney United is next and they did win, 4-2 at Leichhardt, while near the bottom the Central Coast and Manly Warringah Dolphins shared the points in a 2-2 draw. Eastern Suburbs split those two teams on the ladder as they had a good 2-0 away win at the Macarthur Rams.

G16's

The lead at the top of the G16 table changed once again after Saturday's games, as leaders Leichhardt Tigers went down 1-0 at home to Sydney United.

Sydney Olympic were the main beneficiary, as they moved back to the top of the table with a 4-2 home win over the Wollongong Wolves.

Newcastle remains in third after a 2-1 win over the Sutherland Sharks, while Blacktown are in fourth after a 3-0 win over the Southern Branch. Wollongong dropped to sixth after their defeat to the new leaders, and the Parramatta eagles went into fifth after a 2-0 win over the Gladesville Hornsby Association.

The Central Coast made it six wins for the year after winning 1-0 at home to the Manly Warringah side, while Macarthur defeated bottom side Eastern Suburbs 5-2.

The days other game saw Marconi Fairfield secure a good 5-0 away win at the Southern Districts.

Round 19 review

G13's

The Blacktown City Demons picked up another victory to maintain their fifteen point lead at the top of the table and a 4-1 win over Sydney Olympic saw the Demons concede only their sixth goal in nineteen games.

All matches to be played on Saturday June 19

Wollongong bounced back from Saturday's defeat with a 2-1 home win over the Parramatta Eagles, but Sydney Olympic's defeat saw them drop to fifth.

Into third came the Newcastle Breakers, who won 2-0 at Marconi Fairfield, and the Gladesville Hornsby Association are in fourth after their 4-0 win over Sydney United.

The Eagles remain sixth despite their defeat, as in seventh the Leichhardt Tigers were shocked 1-0 by the Macarthur Rams.

The Southern Branch defeated the Manly Warringah Dolphins 3-2 and the Southern Districts are in eighth after a 3-0 win at Eastern Suburbs.

The Sutherland Sharks sit comfortably in mid-table after their 4-1 win over the Central Coast.

G14's

Round 19 saw the top teams remain where they were for a change, as leaders Sydney Olympic went to Blacktown and won 2-1. Sydney United and the Gladesville Hornsby Association went into their match second and third respectively, and they drew 1-1 at Garside Park.

Southern Districts are fourth, but missed the chance to move into second after being held 1-1 to bottom side Eastern Suburbs, while Blacktown are fifth after their loss to the league leaders.

In sixth are Wollongong who defeated the Parramatta Eagles 1-0. followed by the Sutherland Sharks who were held to a 2-2 draw by the Central Coast.

Newcastle are in eighth and won 2-1 at Marconi Fairfield, who they went above on the table after their victory.

Leichhardt and Macarthur were level going into their match at Lambert Park, but the Tigers picked up an easy 4-0 win.

The day's other G14 match saw the Southern Branch defeat the Manly Warringah Dolphins 1-0 at Cromer Park.

G15's

Blacktown maintained their lead at the top of the table after they won 4-0 at home to Sydney Olympic.The Gladesville Hornsby Association in second made it two wins out of two for the weekend when they beat Sydney United 2-0, while Marconi Fairfield bounced back from its loss on Saturday to defeat the Newcastle Breakers 2-1.

It was a good weekend for Southern Districts, as they followed up Saturday's win with a 5-0 win at Eastern Suburbs, while the Sutherland Sharks in fifth defeated the Central Coast 2-0.

Wollongong are in sixth after suffering their second loss of the weekend, 2-1 at the Parramatta Eagles, while Manly ensured the Southern Branch remained at the bottom after a 1-0 win.

Macarthur's G15 team have been inconsistent all year, and they went to Leichhardt and won 3-0, when a win for the Tigers would have seen them move level on points with the Rams.

G16's

Monday's games saw the lead at the top of the table change hands once again, as Leichhardt returned to the top of the table when they won 2-0 against the Macarthur Rams.

Sydney Olympic's reign as leaders was short-lived, as they were hammered 6-1 at Blacktown, and Newcastle won again, 3-0 at Marconi Fairfield.

Blacktown are still in fourth after their win, and then comes Wollongong, who won 1-0 against the Parramatta Eagles.

At the bottom Manly Warringah and the Southern Branch drew 1-1, while the Central Coast went above their hosts the Sutherland Sharks with a 4-1 victory at Bates Drive.

The Southern Districts are one place above them after a 2-1 win at Eastern Suburbs, while the Gladesville Hornsby Association won 2-0 at home to Sydney United.

To complete a big weekend of Super Youth League, the Newcastle Breakers went to Marconi Fairfield and came away with a 3-0 win.

Division One Youth League

Round 15 review

Saturday's action saw the game between the Rockdale City Suns and the Blacktown Association washed out, but the rest of the fixtures went ahead as scheduled.

G13's

Despite the Blacktown Association not playing, the top six in the G13's stayed the same. Leaders Illawara won 10-0 over Canterbury Marrickville, and second-placed Bankstown Association won 5-0 over the Canterbury Association.

It was tougher for AC United in third, but they won 1-0 at Penrith, and the Blacktown Association remains in fourth. St George in fifth won 4-0 at the Fairfield Bulls, while Bonnyrigg remains sixth despite a 1-0 loss to Hills United, who jump up to seventh.

Ryde City is next, as they were over-taken on the ladder by Hills, after a 0-0 draw against the Stanmore Hawks.

G14's

The top three are the same in the G14's after Saturday's games, leaders Ryde City winning 3-1 at the Stanmore Hawks. AC United in second won 3-0 at the Penrith Panthers, while Bonnyrigg are next after a 3-0 win over Hills United.

Penrith's defeat and a 3-0 win by St George at Fairfield sees those clubs change position on the ladder, and the Illawara Lions, who won 4-1 at Canterbury Marrickville, follow them. In mid-table there was a 0-0 draw between the Canterbury Association and the Bankstown Association

G15's

There were few changes to the table after Saturday's games, AC United remaining top after their 1-0 win at the Penrith Panthers. They have a nine-point lead at the top now; as second-placed Bankstown Association were held to a 0-0 draw by the Canterbury Association.

The teams below them fared little better though, as Hills United in third drew 1-1 with the fourth placed Bonnyrigg White Eagles, and Ryde in fifth went down 2-0 at the Stanmore Hawks.

In sixth comes Penrith, then Illawara, who had a 5-0 win at Canterbury Marrickville. The day's other game saw the Fairfield Bulls go above St George after defeating the Saints 3-0.

G16's

The Blacktown Association dropped a place to third after their game was washed out, but the Bankstown Association stays at the top after a 2-0 win over the Canterbury Association.

Ryde City moved into second as they won 3-0 at the Stanmore Hawks, and Illawara stays in fourth after a 6-0 win at Canterbury Marrickville. AC United are next after a 2-0 win over the Penrith Panthers, and there were draws in the other two games, 1-1 between the Fairfield Bulls and St George, and 0-0 between Hills United and the Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

Round 16 review

G13's

It looks good for leaders Illawara after their Round 16 clash with second-placed Bankstown Association. Not only did the Lions get up 4-0 to go five points clear but they also have a game in hand, which on current form they should win.

AC United closed the gap on the second-placed Association side with a 3-0 win over Stanmore, while the Blacktown Association in fourth enjoyed a 2-0 win over Penrith.

St George are still fifth despite losing 1-0 at home to Hills United, and the Fairfield Bulls got their first win of the season in style, a 4-2 away win at the Canterbury Association.

The top six remained the same after Monday's games, as in sixth Bonnyrigg defeated the Rockdale City Suns 3-0, while in the days other match Canterbury Marrickville and Ryde City drew 2-2.

G14's

Round 16 brought few changes to the G14 table, as Ryde City kept up their seven-point lead after a 2-0 win over Canterbury Marrickville. AC United is still second as they defeated the Stanmore Hawks 3-0, while Bonnyrigg in third won 1-0 at home to the Rockdale City Suns.

St George are in fourth after their 0-0 draw against Hills United, a result which allowed the Penrith Panthers to draw level with them after the Panthers won 4-1 against the Blacktown Association.

Illawara remains in sixth after a 2-0 win over the Bankstown Association, while the Canterbury Association edged out bottom club Fairfield Bulls 1-0 at Punchbowl Oval.

G15's

AC United made it an eleven-point advantage at the top of the table with a 4-0 win over the Stanmore Hawks, a lead they have over second-placed Bankstown Association, who could only draw 1-1 with the Illawara Lions.

Hills United slipped to fourth after they too were held to a draw, 2-2 against St George, so Bonnyrigg went third as they won 4-2 over the Rockdale City Suns.

Ryde City are in fifth and picked up three points after a 2-0 win over Canterbury Marrickville, and there were 2-1 victories for the Blacktown Association over the Penrith Panthers and for the Canterbury Association over the Fairfield Bulls.

G16's

Bankstown Association have that four point gap at the top still after they won 3-1 at the Illawara Lions, while in second Ryde City had a 2-0 win over Canterbury Marrickville.

The Blacktown Association are third after a 1-1 draw with the Penrith Panthers, with Illawara still fourth despite their loss to the league leaders.

In fifth its AC United, who lost 2-1 at home to the Stanmore Hawks, who sit in sixth, while the big winners of the day were the Canterbury Association, who defeated the Fairfield Bulls 6-0.

Two other games finished as 2-1 wins to the away sides, Rockdale coming away from Bonnyrigg with all three points, while Hills United did the same to St George.

Round 12 review

G13's

There were close results for the top two in the G13's, as leaders Ku-ring-gai Association were held to a 0-0 draw at fourth placed Mt Pritchard, a result which saw the Nepean Association jump above them on goal difference. Nepean defeated Macquarie Sports, who remain third, 1-0 at Northlakes Oval, a result that could have great significance as the top two have now opened up a six-point lead at the top.

Hajduk Wanderers remains fifth after a 1-1 away draw at the Camden Tigers, a result which saw Mt Druitt go above the Tigers after a 4-3 win at Hawkesbury City.

Moorebank Sports are in eighth after their 3-1 win over Parramatta City, then it's the Granville Association who secured all three points after defeating CSI Schofields 3-1.

G14's

The top four stayed the same after Saturday's Round 12 matches, with Macquarie Sports drawing against the third-placed Nepean Association 1-1. Mt Pritchard spilt the two teams on the table, and moved level on points with Macquarie Sports after beating the Ku-ring-gai Association 2-1.

The Granville Association is next after a 2-0 win at home to CSI Schofields, and Hawkesbury City's 2-2 draw at home to Mt Druitt saw them jump to fifth.

The Camden Tigers picked up their third win of the season with a 5-2 defeat of Hajduk Wanderers, while the bottom two played at Hammondville Oval.

Parramatta City came away with the three points courtesy of a 3-2 win over Moorebank Sports, who came close to picking up their first point of the season.

G15's

It was a good day for leaders Hajduk Wanderers, who not only defeated the Camden Tigers 1-0, but also saw second-placed Parramatta City go down 2-1 at Moorebank Sports.

The Wanderers now have a seven point lead at the top, and when third met fourth at Cook Park it was the Ku-ring-gai Association who came away with all three points, and Mt Pritchard's third spot on the ladder.

Mt Druitt are in mid-table after their 1-0 win at Hawkesbury City, while the Granville Association remain bottom but celebrated their second win of the season with a 1-0 win over CSI Schofields.

The days other game saw Macquarie Sports make it six wins and six defeats in their twelve games, as they defeated the Nepean Association 3-1.

G16's

The Nepean Association maintained its five-point lead at the top of the G16's, after a 3-2 win over Macquarie Sports. The Camden Tigers aren't making it easy though, as they picked up three points as well, beating Hajduk Wanderers 4-2.

The Wanderers lost their third spot as well, as Mt Druitt moved into that position after a 1-0 win over Hawkesbury City.

Mt Pritchard are in fifth after a 0-0 draw at home to the Ku-ring-gai Association, while at the bottom Moorebank Sports lost 4-0 to Parramatta City and CSI Schofields remains bottom after a 1-0 loss to the Granville Association.

Round 13 review

G13's

The Nepean Association made it two out of two for the long weekend, as they thrashed the Granville Association 11-1 on Monday. The Ku-ring-gai Association were held to their second 0-0 draw in three days by the Camden Tigers, while Macquarie Sports bounced back from Saturday's defeat to trounce Parramatta City 5-0. Mt Pritchard remains fourth after a 1-0 away win at CSI Schofields, then its still Hajduk Wanderers in fifth after their 2-0 win at home to Hawkesbury City.

Mt Druitt are next after two wins in their weekend, following up Saturday's win with a 2-1 defeat of Moorebank Sports.

G14's

Despite two rounds on the long weekend the top four still stayed the same.

Macquarie Sports at the top defeated Parramatta City 2-0, and have a three-point lead now after Mt Pritchard lost 2-0 at CSI Schofields. The Nepean Association remains third after a 1-1 draw with the Granville Association, who stay fourth.

CSI Schofields are in fifth, followed by Hawkesbury City, who drew 1-1 with Hurstville City. The Camden Tigers in seventh had a good 3-0 win over the Ku-ring-gai Association, their second win of the weekend, while Mt Druitt edged out bottom club Moorebank Sports 3-2.

G15's

Leaders Hajduk Wanderers made it a six point weekend after coming away with a 5-0 win over the Hurstville City Minotaurs, and Parramatta City are still seven points behind after they won 2-0 at Macquarie Sports. The Ku-ring-gai Association kept its hard-earned third spot with a 2-0 win over the Camden Tigers, then Mt Pritchard are next as they bounced back from Saturday's defeat to win 3-1 at CSI Schofields.

Mt Druitt moved within three points of Moorebank Sports when the two clashed at Popondetta Park, Mt Druitt winning 1-0.

At the bottom the Granville Association couldn't build on Saturday's win, as they went down 4-2 at the Nepean Association.

G16's

Its still a five point lead for the Nepean Association as they defeated the Granville Association 4-2, although both the Camden Tigers and Mt Druitt in second and third respectively are locked together on 31 points.

The Tigers won 3-1 at the Ku-ring-gai Association, while Mt Druitt won 3-0 over Moorebank Sports.

Hajduk Wanderers, who dropped to fourth after Saturday's games, stay there despite a 1-0 win over Hawkesbury City, and Mt Pritchard stay fifth after their 2-1 victory at CSI Schofields. Next come Parramatta City, as they went above Macquarie Sports on goal difference after beating their hosts 1-0 at Northlakes Oval.

Parramatta City v CSI Schofields Eric Primrose Park*
 re-arranged rd 9 match - to be played Sunday June 20

Cadet League Division One

It was a free weekend in Division One of the Cadet League, so the only fixtures played were two re-arranged games.

G11's

Marconi Fairfield and the Leichhardt Tigers both moved onto 20 points, as they drew their Round 3 re-arranged match 0-0 at Lambert Park. Ryde City enjoyed a good tussle with Eastern Suburbs in the day's other game, a Round 7 re-arranged match, and took all three points with a 1-0 victory.

G12's

The Leichhardt Tigers missed the chance to catch their visitors Marconi Fairfield on Sunday, as the away side won 6-1 to move within striking distance of the top teams.

Eastern Suburbs picked up its fourth win of the season though, after they defeated Ryde City 3-1

Cadet League Division Two

Round 15 review

G11's

Macquarie Sports went top of the G11's table after Sunday's games by the closest of margins. A 6-0 win over Stanmore Hawks sees them move to 37 points and with a goal difference of 46. Illawara Lions defeated Hills United 3-0, a result that sees them on the same number of points in second but with a goal difference of 45!

Penrith in third had a big home win over Moorebank Sports, 11-0, a result which saw AC United move above Hills into fourth as they won 3-0 at home to Mt Druitt Town.

Hajduk Wanderers are in sixth after a 2-1 win over CSI Schofields, while Mt Pritchard and Hurstville City drew 1-1.

G12's

Stanmore look good at the top of the table after a 2-0 away win at Macquarie Sports, and they increased their lead to six points as Illawara were held to a 1-1 draw by the fourth placed Hills United. There were no such problems for Penrith in third, as they defeated Moorebank Sports 2-0, and AC United in fifth won 4-0 over Mt Druitt.

The bottom two played at Cook Park, and both teams came away with a point as Mt Pritchard and Hurstville City drew 3-3.
